

The premise of the game is pretty straightforward, get through the five levels by going through the portal at the end. Don't touch the explosive lava floor or you will die.

You have 3 lives and there are 3 difficulties to choose from.

Easy: You get 5 jumps (this is really easy).

Medium: You get 2 jumps.

Hard: You get 1 jump.

There are some bombs scattered in some of the levels that may make your run easier or harder depending on how you use them.

Your score is based on the amount of coins you collect throughout the levels.

If you manage to get to the end with a score of 15 or greater, you unlock the chaos level. Your high score is saved so once you get 15 you will always have the chaos level.

There is no end to the chaos level, it's more so just for fun (pause and click the main menu button if you wanna leave).
